OFCY is looking for your input into the 2019-2022 Strategic Investment Plan.

OFCY is hosting a final Community Café on April 24 to give the community a voice in the funding strategies for 2019-2022. OFCY estimates that there will be approximately $50,000,000 available over three years through the funding strategies to support children and youth programming in Oakland. A final strategy showcase event will take place on May 24 to share draft strategies with the public and receive feedback from the community.

There will be food & refreshments available at both events.

Visit www.ofcy.org for more information.
