Goal Area 1: Healthy Development of Young Children

Strategy 1) Social Emotional Well-being in Early Childhood

Agency: Jewish Family & Community Services East Bay

Program: Integrated Early Childhood Consultation Program

OFCY Grant: $175,000

Youth to be Served: 360

Adults to be Served: 507

The Integrated Early Childhood Consultation Program (IECCP) is a collaboration between JFCS East Bay and Oakland Unified School District (OUSD) to provide early childhood mental health services via consultations, parenting workshops, and screening/referrals to increase children's academic, social, and emotional success. In school year 2022-23, IECCP will serve 8 preschools with over 360 children, 32 educators, and 507 parents. JFCS East Bay will also support OUSD's Multi Tiered Systems Support (MTSS) to increase access to inclusive education for children with disabilities.

Agency: Lifelong Medical Care

Program: Project Pride

OFCY Grant: $75,000

Youth to be Served: 20

Adults to be Served: 20

LifeLong Medical Care proposes to continue the Children's Services Program at Project Pride, its residential treatment program. The program will serve a minimum of 20 children and 20 adults annually. It will provide developmental assessments, parenting education groups, parent/child dyad sessions, case management for parenting needs, and field trips/activities for the mothers and children. Length of stay at Project Pride is typically between 4 to 12 months. The goal is to reduce the children's risk for adverse childhood events and strengthen the mother's understanding of healthy development.

Agency: Lincoln

Program: Early Childhood Mental Health Collaborative

OFCY Grant: $300,000

Youth to be Served: 1,000

Adults to be Served: 250

Lincoln's Early Childhood Collaborative (Lincoln, UCSFBCHO, and OTTP) will provide services at 12 OUSD Child Development Centers to educators, and 1,000 low-income, at-risk children, ages 2-5, and 250 caregivers annually. Services include social-emotional and developmental screenings, child specific consultations, workshops with caregivers and educators, community events, resource linkages, child/family treatment with mental health professionals to promote socio-emotional well-being, and the early identification and treatment of developmental delays and behavior concerns in children.

Agency: Oakland Parks, Recreation & Youth Development

Program: Community Adventure Pre-K Playgroup (C.A.P.P)

OFCY Grant: $100,000

Youth to be Served: 60

Adults to be Served: 60

C. A. P.P. is a bi-weekly program projected to serve 60 Oakland youth 0-5 and their caregivers at 3 Recreation centers, September–May. C.A.P.P. serves families that do not qualify for Head Start or preschool. Playgroup will focus on preschool readiness by providing; circle time, arts and crafts projects, storytime, and field trips. Youth will learn fundamental concepts such as days of the week, colors, seasons, and develop familiarity with letters, numbers, and counting. The desired outcome is for families to build a community and provide preschool readiness through this program.

Goal Area 1: Healthy Development of Young Children

Strategy 1) Social Emotional Well-being in Early Childhood

Agency: Through the Looking Glass

Goal: to enhance socioemotional development, parent/child/family/teacher relationships. Services: weekly ECMH consultation in 9 East/West Oakland OHS centers; as-needed developmental/OT consultation in East/West Oakland OHS centers; 4 week summer therapeutic playgroups/parent workshops in Brookfield, Lion Creek Crossing OHS centers, home-based developmental/OT, mental health services averaging 1 month; two 9-week session zoom parenting groups for East/West Oakland families.

Goal Area 1: Healthy Development of Young Children

Strategy 2) Family Resource Centers and Parent Engagement

Agency: BANANAS, Inc

Program: Healthy Havenscourt Early Care and Kinder Readiness Hub

OFCY Grant: $500,000

Youth to be Served: 226

Adults to be Served: 638

The Kinder Readiness Hub is located at the Lion Creek Crossings FRC for families of young children in the Havenscourt neighborhood. Our goal is to support children's social-emotional development and kinder-readiness so they will succeed and thrive in school and life. Services will include family navigation and referrals, parent/caregiver-child playgroups, peer support and social connection for young families, kinder-transition family activities, financial literacy, concrete social supports and distribution of basic needs. We envision the Hub supporting 226 children 0 to 5 and 638 caregivers.

Agency: Dads Evoking Change

Program: Dads Evoking Change

OFCY Grant: $40,000

Youth to be Served: 20

Adults to be Served: 25

DEC will provide a series of free parenting workshops and counseling for under-resourced fathers and their families in East Oakland. DEC will provide 20 children and 25 parents with a space to positively interact, confront past trauma/heal, and guidance from mental health and social service professionals on healthy co-parenting habits. Parents will leave workshops with co-parenting plans (time splits, healthcare decisions, school, support, etc) so that they do not need the family law courts to intervene. This will strengthen the non-traditional family unit and improve outcomes for children.

Agency: East Bay Agency for Children (EBAC)

Program: Hawthorne Family Resource Center

OFCY Grant: $238,474

Youth to be Served: 74

Adults to be Served: 197

East Bay Agency for Children's Hawthorne Family Resource Center (HFRC), located at Achieve Academy, primarily serves immigrants and low-income families in Fruitvale impacted by poverty/trauma. Many have children who attend Achieve, where 92% of students receive free/reduced lunch. HFRC Parent Child Education Support participants are low-income Latinx or Mam families with no previous preschool experience. HFRC will help 201 adults annually access group/individual services that promote wellness/economic well-being/self-reliance. PCESP will prepare 76 children annually for Kindergarten.

Agency: Family Bridges, Inc.

Program: Social Services to Young Children & Their Families

OFCY Grant: $40,000

Youth to be Served: 30

Adults to be Served: 30

Family Bridges will provide services to support young children and their families to become better equipped to meet basic needs and thus become more self-sufficient and importantly, to thrive. We will assist 60 families whose members are predominantly immigrant, low-income, and limited-/non-English proficient. Our services will help them secure healthcare, affordable housing, food and nutrition assistance, etc. These services will importantly attend to the cultural and language needs of the family. They will also learn how to maintain eligibility and how to self-advocate.

Goal Area 1: Healthy Development of Young Children

Strategy 2) Family Resource Centers and Parent Engagement

Agency: Lincoln

Program: New Highland RISE Family Resource Center (NHR FRC)

OFCY Grant: $220,000

Youth to be Served: 120

Adults to be Served: 180

Lincoln's FRC at the joint OUSD campus of New Highland Academy and RISE Community School (NHR) in East Oakland provides play groups, early literacy support, parenting engagement, basic needs, social emotional learning, and other support services. Many of the predominantly Latinx and African-American families served by the FRC annually have experienced violence and trauma. The FRC's purpose is to build on families' strengths and develop their capacity to support their children's healthy development, literacy, and readiness for/success in school. The FRC will serve 120 youth and 180 adults.

Agency: Lotus Bloom

Program: Culturally Responsive Family Resource Center

OFCY Grant: $248,993

Youth to be Served: 62

Adults to be Served: 62

Lotus Bloom will serve 124 participants through the Culturally-Responsive Family Resource Centers located at 555 19th Street. The services offered are Playgroups (3x's per week) and Family Navigation (daily). Both are cornerstone of our services, where we provide a safe and healthy environment for children and families to thrive. We embed trust and relationship-centered family navigation, resource and referrals, parental support and empowerment activities into the playgroup time, and are thus able to create deep connections and support families who might not otherwise reach out for help.

Agency: Our Family Coalition

Program: LIFTS (LGBTQ Intersectional & Inclusive Family Support & Trauma Services)

OFCY Grant: $125,000

Youth to be Served: 96

Adults to be Served: 75

Our Family Coalition (OFC) is a family resource center, whose work primarily targets the healthy development of children ages 0-5 growing up in Bay Area LGBTQ+ families. OFC provides LGBTQ parents/caregivers opportunities for social networking, learning, and leadership through weekly peer-led support groups, parent-infant classes, workshops/trainings, and navigation services, which will occur in various community sites across Oakland. Our goal is for 75 LGBTQ+ adults with children to participate in an average of 2-3 one-time/ongoing activities throughout FY 2022-2023.

Agency: Refugee & Immigrant Transitions (RIT)

Program: Parent Tot Initiative (PTI)

OFCY Grant: $250,000

Youth to be Served: 72

Youth to be Served: 315

Adults to be Served: 315

Baby Learning Communities Collaborative Program (BLCCP) proposes to serve 5 communities: Stonehurst, Havenscourt, Melrose, Fruitvale, West Oakland. Parent resiliency is the driving force strengthening families and communities; BLCCP will provide spaces for parents to engage their peers and community needs. BLCCP will expand access to mental health/special needs support, school readiness, basic needs, and parent advocacy/volunteer/mutual aid. Partners Safe Passages, UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital Oakland, Through the Looking Glass, JFCS- East Bay and CRECE will serve 630 adults and children.

Agency: Tandem, Partners in Early Learning

Program: Early Learning Everywhere: Building Family Connections

OFCY Grant: $98,632

Youth to be Served: 150

Adults to be Served: 100

Early Learning Everywhere builds connections between families and partnering community resources by meeting them where they are: through recruitment at health, housing, and food service providers in Central, East, and West Oakland. 400 youth and 300 adults will be served through meaningful early learning pop ups. From these pop ups, 150 youth and 100 adults will go on to participate in workshops and play-and-learn group series. Families will participate in programs designed to strengthen their existing practices to prepare children across the foundations of kindergarten readiness.

Youth to be Served: 500

Community Reading Buddies is an innovative double-impact program founded in 1994 by a local teacher and later adopted and expanded by Aspire Education:

- 1) We train Oakland middle and high school students, mostly from OUSD's Explore College, Career, & Community Options (ECCCO) program, in leadership, connection, & communication skills.
- 2) We then invite them to be part of a small cohort of other young leaders and pair each youth with an underserved Oakland K-3rd grader behind in literacy twice a week for eight-week cycles, meaningfully increasing literacy rates and caring community connections

Agency: Attitudinal Healing Connection

Program: Oakland Legacy Project

OFCY Grant: $450,000

Youth to be Served: 500

The Oakland Legacy Project (OLP) will provide arts programming, environmental teaching, and leadership development for 300+ Oakland students annually. At elementary and middle schools, AHC teachers will integrate art making and environmental awareness into 2 classes per week and on field trips. High schoolers commit to meeting 2-3 days/week at the AHC studio. OLP fosters critical thinking by exposing young people to new environments, artistic expression, and leadership opportunities. Participants develop self-esteem and a global sense of themselves as valuable changemakers.
