EVALUATION OF PROGRAMS

The Oakland Fund for Children and Youth (OFCY) provides grants to many programs serving youth and their families in Oakland. OFCY programs serve thousands of youth ages 0 to 21 and their parents/ caregivers and include everything from parent education programs to youth leadership and career development programs.

All programs funded by OFCY are required to participate in an independent evaluation. Part of this requirement is to report on who is served and how much and what types of services participants received. Grantees enter this service information through a secure, password-protected online grant management system. However, no single participant will ever be identified in any evaluation. Data is only used in the aggregate to report program and fund performance.

As part of the evaluation, you may be asked to complete surveys and participate in focus groups. The survey asks what you do in the program, how much you like what you do, and demographic information. Again, no specific participant will be identified in evaluation reports. Survey and focus group findings will only be summarized.

I give permission for my data to be used in evaluation of OFCY funded programs.

During your participation in the OFCY-funded program, you may participate in an activity that is being photographed or video recorded. These photographs/video recordings may be used with your permission for OFCY promotional purposes.

The evaluation and photos/videos help tell the story of the impact of OFCY funded programs. This helps to inform the Oakland community about the positive benefits resulting from the public investment of OFCY funds to support programs serving children, youth and their parents/caregivers presently and in the future.

I give permission for OFCY to use photographs or videos of me.
