The Early Childhood Mental Health Collaborative consists of Family Paths, Through the Looking Glass and Jewish Family and Community Services. We will provide Mental Health and Developmental Consultation to 14 City of Oakland Head Start sites, and 5 OUSD Child Development Centers in high stress neighborhoods in Oakland where 671 infants, toddlers and preschool age children will be enrolled. Our goal is to support early childhood educators and parents to better understand and address developmental and social-emotional growth of young children in order to increase kindergarten readiness.

Agency Name: Jewish Family & Community Services East Bay
Program Name: Integrated Early Childhood Consultation Program
Grant Award FY20-21: $364,000
Projected Youth Served: 1115      Projected Adults Served: 670
Program Contact: Carol Springer; csinger@jfcs-eastbay.org; 510-704-7480 ext. 244
Website: www.jfcs-eastbay.org

The Integrated Early Childhood Consultation Program (IECCP) is a collaboration between JFCS East Bay, Lincoln, and Oakland Unified School District Early Childhood Department to provide comprehensive, trauma-informed early childhood mental health services at 18 preschools and 9 transitional kindergartens in Oakland. The program will serve 1,115 children, 120 educators, and 670 parents. IECCP integrates child development services and direct therapeutic work into a proven mental health consultation model to support children's healthy social-emotional development and promote learning readiness.

Agency Name: Lincoln
Program Name: Early Child Mental Health Consultation (ECMHC)
Grant Award FY20-21: $199,999
Projected Youth Served: 672
Program Contact: Brooke Barnett; brookebarnett@lincolnfamilies.org; 510-368-5324
Website: <http://lincolnfamilies.org/>

Lincoln's Early Child Mental Health Consultation (ECMHC) program will provide services to educators and parents/caregivers at 9 OUSD Child Development Centers/Pre-K's, which serve 672 low-income, at-risk children ages 2-5 annually. Services--including ASQ screenings, child specific consultations with teachers and parents, teacher and parent workshops, resource linkages and referrals--build educators' and parents' capacity to promote the social and emotional well-being of children in their care, and assist in the early identification and treatment of developmental delays and behavior concerns.

Strategy 2) Parent Engagement and Support

Agency Name: Alameda County Health Care Services Agency
Program Name: Oakland WIC Father Cafes
Grant Award FY20-21: $117,500
Projected Youth Served: 15      Projected Adults Served: 75
Program Contact: Christopher Gibson; Christopher.gibson@acgov.org; 510-667-3678
Website: <http://www.acgov.org/health/>

The Oakland WIC Father Cafes Program will serve ~300 low-income fathers of children, ages 0-5, who are enrolled in the Alameda County Women, Infants, and Children Supplemental Nutrition program (WIC). Participants in bi-weekly Father Cafes--facilitated peer-to-peer support groups at WIC sites at Telegraph and Eastmont Mall--will develop parenting skills and knowledge to support their child's development and the co-parenting relationship with their partners. The program promotes fatherhood responsibility, resulting in healthy development for young children and improved kindergarten readiness.

Agency Name: City of Oakland Parks Recreation & Youth Development
Program Name: Community Adventure Pre-K Playgroups (CAPP)
Grant Award FY20-21: $182,000
Projected Youth Served: 40      Projected Adults Served: 40
Program Contact: Margarita Rodriguez; mrodriguez2@oaklandca.gov; 510-238-6279
Website: www.oaklandca.gov

This 2x/wk program is to serve up to 135 Oakland children (including parents/caregivers) ages 0-5, at 4 Recreation centers (Carmen Flores, Willie Keyes, Mosswood and Rainbow). We plan on hosting virtual zoom circle time September 2020 through year end. We hope to resume in person sessions in January 2021, but are flexible based upon county guidelines. We seek to serve families that do not meet low-income requirements of Head Start and are unable to afford preschool. Each playgroup will provide a circle time, arts and crafts project; also monthly enrichment activities and quarterly field trips.

Agency Name: Family Paths, Inc.
Program Name: Abriendo Puertas/Opening Doors Parent Education
Grant Award FY20-21: $50,000
Projected Youth Served: 0      Projected Adults Served: 50

Project WHAT! (We're Here and Talking!) is a leadership and advocacy program designed for and led by youth ages 12-21 in San Francisco, Alameda, and Contra Costa counties who have or have had an incarcerated parent. Program participants raise awareness about issues and policies impacting children with incarcerated parents, educate and train service providers, law enforcement, and policymakers, and advocate for improved services and policy changes. The program employs youth who have experienced parental incarceration as the primary curriculum content developers and facilitators for trainings.
