The following guide provides an overview of the programs recommended for OFCY funding in FY2021-2022. A total of 149 program applications are included. Programs are organized under four OFCY Goal Areas as defined by the 2019-2022 Strategic Investment Plan and RFPs: 1) Early Childhood, 2) Student Success in School, 3) Positive Youth Development, and 4) Transitions to Adulthood.

Goal Area 1: Early Childhood

Strategy 1) Socioemotional Well-Being in Preschool & Early Childhood Education

Agency Name:	Family Paths, Inc.
Program Name:	Early Childhood Mental Health Consultation Collaborative
Program Contact:	Nancy Morosohk 510-893-9230 nmorosohk@familypaths.org www.familypaths.org
The Early Childhood Mental Health Collaborative consists of Family Paths, Through the Looking Glass, and Jewish Family and Community Services. We will provide Mental Health and Developmental Consultation to 14 City of Oakland Head Start sites, and 5 OUSD Child Development Centers in high stress neighborhoods in Oakland where 671 infants, toddlers and preschool age children will be enrolled. Our goal is to support early childhood educators and parents to better understand and address developmental and social-emotional growth of young children in order to increase kindergarten readiness.

Agency Name:	Jewish Family & Community Services East Bay
Program Name:	Integrated Early Childhood Consultation Program
Program Contact:	Kenn Campa 805-895-9777 kcampa@jfcs-eastbay.org www.jfcs-eastbay.org
The Integrated Early Childhood Consultation Program (IECCP) is a collaboration between JFCS East Bay, Lincoln, and Oakland Unified School District Early Childhood Department to provide comprehensive, trauma-informed early childhood mental health services at 18 preschools and 9 transitional kindergartens in Oakland. The program will serve 1,144 children, 120 educators, and 700 parents. IECCP integrates child development services and direct therapeutic work into a proven mental health consultation model to support children’s healthy social-emotional development and promote learning readiness.

Agency Name:	Lincoln Families
Program Name:	Early Child Mental Health Consultation (ECMHC)
Program Contact:	Brooke Barnett 510-368-5324 brookebarnett@lincolnfamilies.org www.lincolnfamilies.org
Lincoln's Early Child Mental Health Consultation (ECMHC) program will provide services to educators and parents/caregivers at 9 OUSD Child Development Centers/Pre-Ks, which serve 672 low-income, at-risk children ages 2-5 annually. Services--including ASQ screenings, child specific consultations with teachers and parents, teacher and parent workshops, resource linkages and referrals--build educators’ and parents’ capacity to promote the social and emotional well-being of children in their care, and assist in the early identification and treatment of developmental delays and behavior concerns.

Strategy 2) Parent Engagement and Support

Agency Name:	Alameda County Health Care Services Agency
Program Name:	Oakland WIC Father Cafes
Program Contact:	Christopher Gibson 510-667-3678 Christopher.gibson@acgov.org www.acphd.org
The Oakland WIC Father Cafes Program will serve ~300 low-income fathers of children, ages 0-5, who are enrolled in the Alameda County Women, Infants, and Children Supplemental Nutrition program (WIC). Participants in bi-weekly Father Cafes--facilitated peer-to-peer support groups at WIC sites at Telegraph and Eastmont Mall--will develop parenting skills and knowledge to support their child's development and the co-parenting relationship with their partners. The program promotes fatherhood responsibility, resulting in healthy development for young children and improved kindergarten readiness.

Agency Name:	City of Oakland Parks Recreation & Youth Development
Program Name:	Community Adventure Pre-K Playgroups (CAPP)
Program Contact:	Margarita Rodriguez 510-238-6279 mrodriguez2@oaklandca.gov www.oaklandca.gov/departments/departments-of-parks-recreation-and-youth-development
This 2x/wk program is to serve up to 135 Oakland children (including parents/caregivers) ages 0-5, at 4 Recreation centers (Carmen Flores, Willie Keyes, Mosswood and Rainbow). We plan on hosting virtual zoom circle time September 2020 through year end. We hope to resume in person sessions in January 2021, but are flexible based upon county guidelines. We seek to serve families that do not meet low-income requirements of Head Start and are unable to afford preschool. Each playgroup will provide a circle time, arts and crafts project; also monthly enrichment activities and quarterly field trips.

Agency Name:	Family Paths, Inc.
Program Name:	Abriendo Puertas/Opening Doors Parent Education
Program Contact:	Julianne Rositas 510-893-9230 jrositas@familypaths.org www.familypaths.org
Abriendo Puertas/Opening Doors is an evidence-based 10 session parenting program for Latinos, and all other racial/ethnic groups, with children ages 0-5. In partnership with Oakland Head Start we will serve 60 parents living in East & West Oakland. We will provide four 10-week virtual sessions per funding year. This unique curriculum focuses on family strengths, builds parent leadership & advocacy and promotes best practices in brain, language, math & child development to transform the achievement gap & increase the percentage of young children who are ready for kindergarten.

Agency Name:	LifeLong Medical Care
Program Name:	Project Pride
Program Contact:	Heidi Sohrabi 510-446-7160 hsohrabi@lifelongmedical.org www.lifelongmedical.org/program/project-pride/
LifeLong Medical Care proposes to continue the Children’s Services Program at Project Pride, located at 2545 San Pablo Ave., its residential treatment program for women and their children aged 5 and under. The program will serve a minimum of 20 children annually who are among the most at-risk in Oakland. It provides developmental assessments, parenting education three times weekly, parent/child observation sessions 1-2 times weekly, and case management. The goal is to reduce the children's risk for adverse childhood events while strengthening their capacity for healthy development.

Agency Name:	Oakland Promise
Program Name:	Oakland Promise: Brilliant Baby
Program Contact:	Amanda Feinstein 510-813-1074 amanda@oaklandpromise.org www.oaklandpromise.org/brilliant-baby/
Brilliant Baby helps parents and guardians raise healthy thriving babies during the first critical years of life. In partnership with early childhood programs and pediatric clinics, Brilliant Baby offers parents the opportunity to open 529 college savings account seeded with $500 as an early investment and source of inspiration for their baby’s bright future. Parents are invited to participate in a program of individual financial coaching and group work focused on improving the family’s financial wellbeing, parenting support, leadership, connection to resources, and community building.

Agency Name:	Oakland Unified School District
Program Name:	Kindergarten Readiness-Summer PreK
Program Contact:	Maria Sujo 510-879-2760 maria.sujo@ousd.org www.ousd.org
The Summer Pre-K (SPK) program is a 4-week school readiness program serving 18 children in 6 classrooms in priority neighborhoods. SPK is designed for incoming Kindergarten/TK students with minimal to no preschool experience, with priority enrollment for refugee and newcomer students. SPK provides children with an opportunity to prepare for kindergarten through social and emotional learning, as well as pre-academics; skills necessary for school success. SPK has a parent engagement component to increase family supports and access to services related to kindergarten readiness and child wellness.

Agency Name:	Our Family Coalition
--------------	-----------------------------

Program Name:	Building Strong Children in LGBTQ Families
Program Contact:	Shareena Clark Ascher 415-981-1960 Shareena@ourfamily.org www.ourfamily.org
Oakland's LGBTQ families face multiple obstacles to the healthy development of their children's disproportionate financial barriers, lingering anti-gay stigma, and insufficient access to relevant information and resources, to name just a few. Building Strong Children in LGBTQ Families supports the healthy development of young children growing up in these families by providing parents and caregivers the supportive community, early childhood development knowledge, positive parenting skills training, access to resources, and leadership development they need to build and sustain resilience.

Agency Name:	Prescott-Joseph Center for Community Enhancement, Inc.
Program Name:	Fr. Charles D. Burns, SVD Pre-Pre-School Program
Program Contact:	Amy Morrison 510-393-5266 amy@prescottjoseph.org www.prescottjoseph.org/fr-charles-d-burns-pre-preschool
PJC's Pre-preschool employs a play-based approach to child development where parents and children grow and develop together in "Play-learn" Sessions for a maximum of 20 children per day, and an estimated number of 100 annually. Parent engagement is key to the success of children both at home and at school! Our "walk-in" Play-learn Sessions are three hours and take place Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays at the Prescott Joseph Center for Community Enhancement for Children 6-48 months of age attending with their parent or caregiver.

Agency Name:	Refugee & Immigrant Transitions (RIT) (formerly Refugee Transitions)
Program Name:	Parent & Tot Initiative (PTI)
Program Contact:	Kajal Shahali 510-403-1290 kajal@reftrans.org www.reftrans.org
Refugee Transitions' Parent & Tot Initiative (PTI) is a culturally/linguistically responsive parent engagement program that will serve 150 newcomer parents of children 0-8, and 100 of their children ages 0-5. Services will be offered Monday-Friday. The RT program hub is at the Harbor House, located at 1811 11th Ave. PTI includes family engagement and parent education, early learning, and supportive services. Key outcomes: improved skills and knowledge for parents to successfully support their children's development in a new country; reduced social and linguistic isolation.

Agency Name:	SAFE PASSAGES
Program Name:	Baby Learning Communities Collaborative

Program Contact:	Laura Cabral 510-690-4050 lcabral@safepassages.org www.safepassages.org/initiatives/early-childhood/baby-learning-communities/
The Baby Learning Communities Collaborative Program serves 4 high-need communities in Oakland: Havenscourt, Stonehurst, West Oakland, Fruitvale. The BLCCP supports caregivers and children 0-8 years old (prioritizing: children living poverty, African-American/Latinx children and parents, immigrants/refugees) by providing culturally and linguistically responsive programs and services. The program offers infant playgroups, pre-k readiness playgroups, parent workshops, literacy/social emotional/family enrichment, mental health resource/special needs case management, and essential needs support.

Strategy 3) Family Resource Centers

Agency Name:	BANANAS, Inc
Program Name:	Healthy Havenscourt Early Care & Kinder Readiness Hub
Program Contact:	Maria Hassel 510-658-7353 x120 maria@bananasbunch.org www.bananasbunch.org
Create an Early Care & Education (ECE) Hub at the Lion Creek Crossings Family Resource Center (LCC FRC) for families of young children in the Havenscourt neighborhood. The Hub will provide onsite resources and services to support children’s healthy development and kinder-readiness so they will succeed and thrive in school and life. Services include child care and family services navigation, curriculum-based parent-child playgroups, a Parent University, family engagement, PreK activities, and a parent leadership group. We envision the Hub supporting 620 children birth to 5 and 1,835 caregivers.

Agency Name:	East Bay Agency for Children
Program Name:	Central Family Resource Center
Program Contact:	Allison Delgado 510-844-6752 allison@ebac.org www.ebac.org
East Bay Agency for Children's (EBAC) Central Family Resource Center (CFRC), located at an Oakland Unified School District (OUSD) multi-use facility annually serves close to 1600 (2127 individuals) low income, underserved families with children residing throughout Oakland. The CFRC strategically located within proximity of partner resources organizations, acts as a gateway for families to access needed parenting education supports, health insurance, and other social services vital to ensuring parent engagement, children’s healthy development and school success.
