Early Childhood Mental Health Consultations

The Early Childhood Mental Health Consultation programs funded by OFCY provide support to early childhood educators and parents to promote healthy emotional and social development. Licensed mental health professionals consult weekly with educators around the mental health and developmental needs of children in their classroom, deliver parenting workshops, and provide individual consultations to children and parents to help transform challenging behaviors. These programs support Head Start, OUSD Child Development Centers, and a handful of home-based preschools throughout Oakland

School Based After School

The Oakland School-Based After School Partnership is a collaboration between the Oakland Fund for Children and Youth (OFCY) and the Oakland Unified School District's After School Programs Office.

OFCY provides over $4.8 million annually to support 60 elementary and middle school program sites, reaching 9,150 students in the 2016-2017 school year.

OFCY funding serves as a local match for state ASES funding, which provides $6.1M for elementary and middle school programs.

After school participants are a diverse group. More than four in 10 after school youth are Latino/a (44%), making up the highest proportion of participants. About one-third of participants are African-American (34%), followed by smaller proportions of Asian/Pacific Islander (14%) and white (7%) youth.

Student Engagement in Learning

The Student Engagement in Learning programs funded by OFCY help children and youth feel connected to school and engaged in their own learning. Programs provide targeted academic support to meet the specific needs of the participants they serve, including youth at risk of dropping out of school, newcomers, boys of color, and students with chronic absences. In addition to academic support, participants may receive case management or participate in arts programming, restorative justice training, and socio-emotional learning activities.

Year-Round Youth Development & Empowerment

The Year-Round Youth Development and Empowerment programs funded by OFCY help youth develop leadership skills, contribute to their community, and build friendships while engaging in the arts, technology, entrepreneurship, and sports. In addition to providing enrichment activities, usually in an afterschool setting, programs allow youth to build relationships with adults and mentors. Many of these programs also specifically support specific populations, including foster youth, youth exposed to violence, homeless youth and LGBTQ youth

Summer Youth Development & Empowerment

The Summer Youth Development and Empowerment programs funded by OFCY help youth stay engaged in learning while developing leadership skills, contributing to their community, and having fun. Children and youth receive academic support and participate in opportunities such as field trips, arts programming, project-based learning, and community activism. Half of these programs operated community-based summer camps throughout the city and half provided enrichment activities for students enrolled at OUSD summer school programs
