

The Oakland Fund for Children and Youth Children's Fund Planning and Oversight Committee Youth Appointees Needed

The Oakland Fund for Children and Youth is looking for young people interested in changing their communities for the better to join the Planning and Oversight Committee (POC). This important commission decides how to allocate 3% of the City's unrestricted general fund revenues to support Oakland's children and youth. The POC is made up of 17 members appointed by the Mayor and City Council, at least 8 of whom are youth. For the 2018-2019 term, six vacancies for youth appointees are anticipated in District 1, District 2, District 3, District 4, District 5 and District 7.

OFCY funded services focus on four legislative goals to: Support the healthy development of young children; Help children and youth succeed in school and graduate high school; Prevent and reduce violence, crime and gang involvement among children; and Help youth transition to a productive adulthood. For more information, please visit OFCY's website at www.ofcy.org.
